WOMAN'S COLLEGE DESCRIBED.

Mrs. S. H. Williams Explains to Women's Club and Guests Merits of New State Institution.

At the meeting of the Willimantic Women's club Tuesday afternoon Mrs. S. H. Williams delivered an instructive and comprehensive lecture on the Connecticut Woman's college. Guests from Anne Wood Elderkin chapter, D. A. E. which has recently contributed $100 to the college fund, and young women from the Windham high school, with the club members, made up a good sized and appreciative audience.

Mrs. Williams spoke briefly on the Connecticut's need for a woman's college, the history of the college, its inception by the Hartford College club, and the personal efforts of Miss Elizabeth Wright, a Wesleyan graduate, now registrar of the new college.

Reasons for the choice of the college site were dwelt upon and its beauty and advantages shown in photograph and word picture. The speaker stated that the college would open in the fall with two dormitories, Plant and Blackstone, and a science hall, splendidly equipped for science and containing the administration and class rooms. The refectory which the institution had expected to put up will be replaced by two houses already on the grounds. These houses are joined and form at one end a laundry, kitchen, etc., with a dining room in the central portion. Dr. Sykes, the president, and his family have consented to live temporarily in the other end building, while members of the faculty will have suites over the main dining hall. A plan showing the future appearance of the college was displayed.

The architecture of the smaller buildings will be domestic Tudor, and the larger ones associated collegiate Gothic. The college will confer the degrees of B. A. and B. S. and its entrance requirements are similar to those of all the leading colleges. The curriculum differs from others in that it offers a vocational course, to the need for which other universities and colleges are just waking up. The girls' dormitories have rooms 10 by 14, hot and cold water, closet and two windows in each room. It is to be hoped opportunities for a girl to help herself will be offered. A library fund is being raised, and scholarships are being founded all over the state. The registration at present is 53, 47 of whom will be residents. Twelve girls will commute from Norwich, one from Plainfield and one from Lyme. New York furnishes applicants, Vermont, Rhode Island one and Connecticut 22. There is one special student registered.

Mrs. Williams summed up the assets of the new college under three heads: an ideal site, a liberal endowment, and provision for a broad education, but stated that Connecticut and Connecticut women must be looked to for the buildings.

The speaker was accorded a vote of thanks after the lecture. During the lecture Mrs. George M. Graves sang Nevins' "Twins April" in excellent voice and responded to an encore with "I Love You Truly," by Jacob Bond.

Supper was served at the close of the meeting to the club members and their guests.

SUPERIOR COURT.

Suit Over North Windham Pond—Oliver White of Danielson Pays $200 Fine—Jail for Edward Blay.

Judge James H. Webb occupied the bench at a short session of the superior court held in this city Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock. Court was opened with prayer by Rev. Charles L. Adams of St. Paul's E. church.

The first matter heard was the argument of a demurrer by Attorneys Danahy and Harvey in the case of Gio Batta Ogino vs. the Elm Farm Milk company. The plaintiffs are the owners of a right to take water from a pond on the north Windham road near Phelps crossing and the defendants have the right to cut ice from the pond. Last summer the defendants let the water out of the pond, in the process of rebuilding and repairing the dam, and this suit is brought to determine whether they had any right to so interfere with the prior right of the plaintiffs to take water. The defense claimed is that the work was necessary to maintain the pond, and the defendants had been delegated the right of the owner of the land to keep the dam in repair. Decision was reserved.

Three accused persons were put to trial. The first was Oliver White, Jr., of Danielson, arraigned on the charge of assault with intent to kill a state

"WHEREWITHALL"

Everybody needs it, of course.

Everybody is going to need it more in the future, too, when the earning capacity is less than during youth or middle-age.

The best way to be sure to have some THEN is to save a little NOW—a little at a time, but that little often.

police man and with resisting an officer. State's Attorney Searls said the lower court had jurisdiction of the second count and he therefore nolle prossed that count. He urged the court to impose a heavy fine if the accused would plead guilty to simple assault, as he said he did not believe White intended to use the gun except to frighten the officer, and had no intention of killing him. This course was followed and a fine of $200 imposed.

Tetras Yalkin of Providence, R. I., charged with embezzling $155 from Nathan Berkowitz, whose agent he was, in the town of Killingly, pleaded not guilty, and the case will be disposed of later as a trial.

JEREMIAH O'SULLIVAN DEAD.

Successful Contractor Known Throughout Eastern Connecticut for His Ability and Integrity.

Jeremiah O'Sullivan, one of the best known of Willimantic's citizens, died at his home, 123 Main street, at 10 o'clock Tuesday morning. Fibroid phthisis was the cause of death. Mr. O'Sullivan had been in poor health for some time and retired from active business as a contractor and builder some 18 months ago. About a week ago his condition became serious and he was unable to get outdoors. His end was not unexpected.

He was born March 17, 1850, in Coleris, County Kerry, Ireland, the son of Otho and Mary (Shannahan) O'Sullivan. The family fortunes were depleted on account of religious troubles during the reign of King James and the family migrated to this country.

Otho O'Sullivan came to this country with his family in 1856, settling in New York, but coming to Jewett City. Jeremiah O'Sullivan went to work at the age of 13 and soon entered the employ of the Willimantic Linen company. Later he took up the trade of contracting and building, working under Chappell & Potter, and later forming the firm of Casey & O'Sullivan. In 1875 he was elected to the board of directors of the Willimantic Savings institute, a position which he held until the fall of 1913, when he retired. Many important buildings in eastern Connecticut were built under Mr. O'Sullivan's direction.

The deceased was a director of the Willimantic Building and Loan association, a director of the Willimantic Savings institute, a member of the Connecticut State society, associate member of San Jose council, No. 14, K. of C., and of the local division of the A. O. U. He was a man of fine business character and will be greatly missed in the community of which he has always been a most valued and honored member.

There survive the deceased his wife, formerly Mary A. Regan, two brothers, Daniel O'Sullivan of Tennessee and Otho O'Sullivan of this city, and a sister, Mrs. Ann Murphy, also of Willimantic.

Taxpayers Prompt.

About $30,000 out of $36,000 to be paid to the Tax Collector George A. Bartlett was paid within the first 30 days, leaving but a small per cent. to pay interest on their taxes as well.

High School Teacher Resigns.

Miss Hazel K. Miller of the Windham high school faculty has resigned to take effect at the expiration of the current school year. This makes the second vacancy which will have to be filled for next year. Miss Miller has been a member of the faculty for the past two or three years and given universal satisfaction.

FUNERAL.

Edward Racicot.
The funeral of Edward Racicot was held from St. Mary's church Tuesday morning at 9 o'clock. Rev. J. J. Papillon officiated. There was special music by the choir, accompanied by Dr. P. S. Keating on the organ. A delegation from Willimantic lodge, No.

J. W. GAFFEY GAVE

TELEGRAPH TALK

At Meeting of Board of Trade and Business Men's Association.

At the regular monthly meeting of the Board of Trade and Business Men's association, held Tuesday evening, J. W. Gaffey of the Western Telegraph company furnished an interesting talk, illustrated with stereopticon views, entitled The Story of the Telegraph.

Previous to the lecture, a short business session was held, with Principal E. A. Case of the Windham high school in the chair. Several communications were received and a committee of three consisting of E. A. Case, George F. Taylor and John E. Buck were appointed to draw up a resolution concerning the death of Jeremiah O'Sullivan.

The address given by Mr. Gaffey was highly interesting showing the rise of telegraphy from the days of the smoke signals of the Indians to the automatic register of the present time, and the trans-oceanic cables. The present day method of wire transmission messages was admirably expounded and the many uses to which the telegraph has been put were pointed out.

At the close a rising vote of thanks was given to the speaker.

Infant Daughter Dies.
Frances Edna, the two months' old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis French of 20 Winter street, died at St. Joseph's hospital Tuesday morning. Infantile apathy was the cause of death.

Resignation Accepted.
Capt. Louis N. Dondero of Company L, First C. N. G. was received word from the adjutant general of the C. N. G. that his resignation has been accepted, to take effect April 30. Captain Dondero has entered business in this city.

Appeal May Be Taken.

Justice Curtis Dean, who heard the case of E. C. Spring vs. C. J. Gratton of Scotland in a suit over a horse deal, has rendered judgment for the defendants. It is understood that an appeal may be taken from the decision to the superior court.

One-Gallon Test Run.

It is expected that there will be a considerable number of entries in the one-gallon test run by local automobile owners this afternoon, if weather conditions are good. The affair is just a good natured test, with the element of competition, as the gets out of fuel some miles from town.
